

The Austerlitz Campaign

with Alan Rooney

Wednesday 24th January 2024 (7.30-9.30pm)

The Battle of Austerlitz is considered by many, including Napoleon himself, to be his finest victory. But how was Napoleon able to ensnare and destroy his foes on the Pratzen Heights in December 1805 some 1,300 kilometres from Paris?

Alan Rooney has been leading battlefield tours to Napoleon's battlefields for nearly 30 years. In this talk he discusses the strategy that allowed Napoleon's Grand Armée to effectively extinguish the Third Coalition in just over six weeks.
